University of Ottawa
The Centre for Infection, Immunity and Inflammation (CI3)

SYMPOSIUM
&
CIHR Institute of Infection and Immunity: MEET-THE-COMMUNITY EVENT

Monday, November 25, 2019
2:00 - 4:00 p.m. Speaker presentations
4:00 - 5:00pm Q&A and networking reception
Roger Guindon Hall Room 2005 and Atrium

Dr. Vanessa D’Costa
Assistant Professor, Dept. Biochemistry, Microbiology and Immunology
Identifying New Host-Pathogen Interactions to Better Understand Bacterial Infection

Dr. Angela M. Crawley
Scientist, The Ottawa Hospital Research Institute
Assistant Professor, Dept. Biochemistry, Microbiology and Immunology
Liver fibrosis, hepatitis C virus infection and CD8 T cell dysfunction:
An example of basic science and clinical partnerships

Dr. Jim Sun
Assistant Professor, Dept. Biochemistry, Microbiology and Immunology
Empowering macrophages for host-directed elimination of tuberculosis

Dr. Marceline Côté
Assistant Professor, Dept. Biochemistry, Microbiology and Immunology
Ebola virus hitches a ride for entry into the host cell

https://med.uottawa.ca/center-infection-immunity-inflammation/