OBJECTIVES:

1. Explore how humour is used in medicine both at and away from the bedside
2. Discuss some of the main theories behind the medical use of humour
3. Review some of the known harms and challenges, especially for learners
4. Explore a potential research agenda for the use of humour in medical education and professional identity formation