Department of Family Medicine, University of Ottawa
Invites applications for the position of

DIRECTOR OF EVALUATIONS

The University of Ottawa, Department of Family Medicine (DFM) is looking for an outstanding candidate for the position of Director of Evaluations. The successful candidate will provide content expertise and leadership to the DFM regarding both program and learner evaluations (see attached for a more detailed job description).

Start date: January 2019
Term: Three (3) year term, renewable at the discretion of the DFM Chair.
Reports to: Postgraduate Program Director
Commitment: Two (2) half days per week
Requirements: University of Ottawa academic appointment in the Department of Family medicine
CCFP with License to practice in Ontario (CPSO)
Bilingualism (French/English) an asset

Competition closing date: November 19, 2018
However, the posting will remain open until the position is filled.

To apply: Applicants are asked to send a curriculum vitae and a letter outlining how current qualifications and experience match our requirements to Ms. Sylvie Forgues-Martel at fadfm@uottawa.ca

The University of Ottawa is proud of its 160-year tradition of bilingualism. Through its Official Languages and Bilingualism Institute, the University provides training to staff members and to their spouses in their second official language. All qualified candidates are invited to apply; however, preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents. When submitting your application, please indicate your current status. The University of Ottawa is an equal opportunity employer. We strongly encourage applications from women, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities and members of visible minorities. If you are invited to continue the selection process, please notify us of any particular adaptive measures you might require. Any information you send us will be handled respectfully and in complete confidence.