1.3 What the mind does not know, the eyes will not see

Dr. Rajendra Singh

Dermatopathology is based on pattern recognition and visual clues. In this talk, the various visual clues and how they can help in making a diagnosis will be presented and discussed.

Educational Objectives

By the end of the presentation, participants will be able to:
1. Implement an algorithmic approach to dermatopathology
2. Demonstrate ability to find subtle clues that can help in making a diagnosis
3. Discuss the importance of clinicopathological correlation their institutions